FISCHER OUTDOOR NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS CELEBRATES ITS CHAMPIONS IN THE U14 DIVISION

Yan and Mackinnon claim singles titles, while Mackinnon and L'Allier, as well as Beltei and Dith win the doubles crowns

[MONTREAL, QC] August 31, 2024 –The final round of the Fischer Outdoor National Championships took place this week, with the best players under the age of 14 in the spotlight at the Carrefour Multisports in Laval, Quebec.

In the girls' draw, Saskatchewan's Isabella Ruyu Yan* (No. 5) took top honours in singles with a 6-2, 6-2 win over Ontario's Tessa Sari Puente* (No. 9) in the championship match. This was her first national title, and she did so without dropping a single set. In the round robin, Yan won all her matches, and even recorded five bagels. In fact, she lost just four games in the qualifying stage of the tournament. Quebec's Catherine Xie* came third with a 6-2, 6-1 win over Ontario's Dongchen Ding*. Ontario's Noelle Yuxuan Dai (No. 3) won the consolation draw to finish fifth.

The doubles final featured the top two seeded teams. Quebec's Alyssa Beltei* and Ontario's Payton Charley Dith* defeated top seeds Ève Thibeault* of Quebec and Yan by a score of 6-3, 7-6(2).

On the boys' side, Ontario's Callum Mackinnon* proved his status as the No. 1 seed, winning his second national singles title with a 6-0, 6-3 victory over No. 9 seed Deniz Karabulut* of Ontario. The two finalists easily advanced to the title match by dominating their opponents throughout the event. Mackinnon soared past his rivals in the round robin, with the exception of a single match that went to three sets. Quebec's Filip Vujicic* won the bronze medal, while Ontario's Thomas O'Neill (No. 9) placed fifth after a loss to the eventual champion.

In doubles, Mackinnon teamed up with Quebecer Marc-Édouard L'Allier* to form the tournament's top-seeded team. They won the title without dropping a single set. They defeated Tristan de Candé (QC) and Julian Mahdavi* (ON), an overlooked team who had qualified for the final after a super tie-break victory in the semis, by a score of 6-2, 7-5 in the final.

The U14 event marks the conclusion of the 2024 Fischer National Championships. Competitors will meet again next winter for the indoor tournament.
