NOEMI BASILETTI AND MAXIM MRVA TRIUMPH AT THE REPENTIGNY NATIONAL BANK JUNIOR TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Nicolas and Mikael Arseneault become first all-Canadian duo to lift the doubles trophy since 1990

[MONTREAL, QC] August 31, 2024 – On Saturday, the Repentigny National Bank Junior Tennis Championships (ITJR) came to a close, and winners were crowned in both the boys' and girls' categories. Held at Parc Larochelle in Repentigny, Quebec, the J300 tournament, Canada's biggest junior event on the ITF World Tennis Tour, saw Italy's Noemi Basiletti and Maxim Mrva of Czechia emerge as the singles champions. Meanwhile, in the boys' doubles draw, Canadian twins Nicolas and Mikael Arseneault captured the boys' doubles title.

Due to the rain, the singles finals took place at IGA Stadium in Montreal, Quebec. On the girls' side, unseeded Basiletti defeated No. 1 seed Hannah Klugman of Great Britain 7-6(2), 6-4 to claim her first title of the season. Basiletti overcame Klugman, the world's ninth-ranked junior player, who lost just seven games en route to the final. The title is the most significant of Basiletti's career, having won a J200 tournament last season. Her remarkable run to the title included victories over the tournament's top three seeds.

The Italian's dream week didn't end there, as she joined forces with compatriot Vittoria Paganetti to claim the girls' doubles title. In the final, they defeated Japan's Reina Goto and Sweden's Lea Nilsson.

The top players dominated the boys' draw, with a battle between the top two seeds to decide the singles champion. Mrva, the tournament's No. 2 seed, managed to defeat top-seeded Mees Rottgering of the Netherlands by a score of 3-6, 6-4, 6-1. Having lost their only previous clash, Mrva came out swinging to level his head-to-head with the Dutchman. Throughout the week, 17-year-old Mrva proved tenacious, needing three sets to defeat his opponents from the quarter-finals onwards. With today's victory, he now has two titles in 2024.

Arseneault brothers on top in doubles

In the doubles draw, Canada's top-ranked junior player in the boys' division, Nicolas Arseneault, and his twin brother Mikael, won the title by defeating Canadians Benjamin Azar and Volodymyr Gurenko in the championship match. With their victory, they became the first all-Canadian team to win a doubles title in Repentigny since Daniel Nestor and Robert Janecek in 1990. It also marks their fourth title as a team.

The ITJR has welcomed some of tennis' most renowned players over the years, including former champions Britain's Andy Murray, Iga Swiatek of Poland, and Canadian Bianca Andreescu. For more information about the event, click here.
