FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CBC SPORTS TO PROVIDE STREAMING COVERAGE OF TEAM CANADA'S 2024 DAVIS CUP GROUP STAGE CAMPAIGN

Fans can watch ties against Argentina, Finland and Great Britain for free on CBC Gem, cbcsports.ca, the CBC Sports app and CBC Sports' official YouTube channel

[TORONTO, ON] September 5, 2024 – Team Canada's 2024 Davis Cup Group Stage campaign will be streamed live by CBC Sports, Tennis Canada confirmed on Thursday.

Led by captain Frank Dancevic (Niagara Falls, ON), the Canadian team featuring Félix Auger-Aliassime (Montreal, QC), Denis Shapovalov (Richmond Hill, ON), Gabriel Diallo (Montreal, QC), Alexis Galarneau (Laval, QC) and Vasek Pospisil (Vernon, BC) heads to Manchester, UK from September 10-15 to compete for a place in the Davis Cup Final 8.

Fans can watch their Group D ties against Argentina (Tuesday, September 10), Finland (Thursday, September 12) and host nation Great Britain (Sunday, September 15) for free via CBC Gem, cbcsports.ca, the CBC Sports app for iOS and Android devices and CBC Sports' official YouTube channel. "We are delighted an agreement has been reached to provide fans with access to watch Team Canada's Davis Cup Group Stage campaign in Manchester," said Gavin Ziv, Chief Executive Officer at Tennis Canada. "We would like to thank the ITF and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation for their work in making this possible. We are taking an exceptionally strong team to the UK and look forward to Canadian tennis fans back home being able to watch them in action for free via CBC Sport's digital platforms."

For Canadian fans planning to attend this month's Group Stage in person, a 10% discount is currently available on tickets for all matches, courtesy of Tennis Canada's partnership with the International Tennis Federation (ITF) and Lawn Tennis Association (LTA). Click here to access the offer.
