REESE BRANTMEIER WINS SAGUENAY NATIONAL BANK CHALLENGER

American captures biggest singles title of her career; also claims doubles crown alongside compatriot Carson Tanguilig

[TORONTO, ON] October 26, 2026 – American Reese Brantmeier captured the singles title at the Saguenay National Bank Challenger on Sunday, defeating Japan's Yuki Naito in a thrilling final, 7-6(8), 7-6(7).

Fresh off a doubles title at the W50 in Quebec City the previous week, Brantmeier continued her strong run in Canada with another standout performance in Saguenay. The 22-year-old delivered under pressure in a pair of tightly contested sets, securing the biggest singles title of her career. The victory also propelled her to a career high world No. 217 in the WTA rankings on Monday.

Brantmeier capped off a memorable week by claiming the doubles title alongside fellow American Carson Tanguilig. The pair's victory marked the biggest doubles title of Tanguilig's career to date, giving both Americans a significant milestone at the Saguenay event.

MEDIA NOTES

- The tournament was held from October 18 to 25 at the Club de tennis intérieur Saguenay as a World Tennis Tour (WTT) W75 event offering $60,000 in total prize money.
- Brantmeier now has three singles WTT titles, and her first at a W75.
- The 22-year-old rose to a career-high world No. 217 in the WTA rankings.
- She's the first player since Timea Babos of Hungary to win both the singles and doubles events in Saguenay.
- The Tevlin Challenger is next on the Canadian fall tennis schedule, taking place this week in Toronto.
