FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TEAM CANADA'S BILLIE JEAN KING CUP PLAY-OFF TIE AGAINST BRAZIL AND DAVIS CUP FINAL 8 TO BE BROADCAST LIVE ON TSN AND TVA SPORTS

[MONTREAL, QC] November 17, 2026 – Canadian tennis fans will have plenty to cheer for this November, as Tennis Canada announced today that TSN (English) and TVA Sports (French) will provide national coverage of both Team Canada's Billie Jean King Cup by Gainbridge Play-offs tie against Brazil, taking place November 20-21, and the Davis Cup by Generali Final 8, scheduled for November 24-29.

The action will begin in Vitória, Brazil, where Team Canada will face Brazil in the Billie Jean King Cup Play-offs. Both days of competition will be available live in English to TSN Premium subscribers, while French-language coverage will be provided by TVA Sports, with Day 1 airing live on TVA Sports and Day 2 on TVA Sports 2.

Attention will then turn to Bologna, Italy, where Team Canada will compete against the world's best nations at the Davis Cup Final 8. TSN and TVA Sports will provide extensive coverage of the prestigious competition, featuring not only Canada's matches, beginning with its quarter-final showdown against Czechia on November 24, but also additional ties throughout the tournament, from the quarterfinals through to the championship final.

"We are grateful for the continued commitment of TSN and TVA Sports to bringing Canadian tennis to audiences across the country," said Valérie Tétreault, Vice President of Communications and Professional Events at Tennis Canada. "Thanks to these valued broadcast partnerships, fans from coast to coast will have the opportunity to follow and support Team Canada as it competes in two of the most prestigious international team competitions in tennis. Beyond showcasing our athletes on the world stage, this national exposure is essential to building excitement around our sport, inspiring the next generation of players and supporting the continued growth of tennis across Canada."
