REESE BRANTMEIER CAPTURES SINGLES TITLE AT THE 2026 TEVLIN CHALLENGER

Canadian duo Ariana Arseneault and Raphaelle Lacasse victorious in doubles

[TORONTO, ON] November 1, 2026 — American Reese Brantmeier captured the singles title at the 2026 Tevlin Challenger on Sunday, defeating Katherine Sebov (Toronto, ON) in a 6-3, 6-1 final. Brantmeier securing the win today at the W75 event in Toronto marks the first Tevlin title of her career.

The 22-year-old has been on a dominant run as of late, capturing two singles titles and three doubles titles in the past two months. Most recently, Brantmeier won the singles title at the 2026 Saguenay National Bank Challenger on October 25th, while also claiming the tournament's doubles title alongside partner and fellow American Carson Tanguilig. Brantmeier has now earned four career singles WTT titles, with two of those wins being earned at a W75 event on Canadian soil.

Canadian duo Ariana Arseneault and Raphaelle Lacasse won the doubles title on Saturday afternoon, defeating American partners Ayana Akli and Madison Sieg in a 6-1, 7-6(3) final. The victory marked their third title as partners this season, alongside their win in September at a W50 tournament in Evora, Portugal and W35 tournament win in The Hague, Netherlands in February. The duo has appeared in the finals of five tournaments together this season. Arseneault and Lacasse are the first Canadian duo to capture the doubles title at Tevlin since Canadian partners Gabriela Dabrowski and Marie-Ève Pelletier won the doubles title in 2012.
